

DEATHS.

HINTON.

—After a long and serious illness, which he bore with Christian fortitude, Mr. C. Oakford Hinton, aged forty-five, died at an early hour Saturday morning at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. James McClure, on Vine street.

Mr. Hinton was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hinton, of Paris, his father having for almost a lifetime conducted a jewelry store in Paris, in the building now occupied by Mrs. George Ellis, on Main street. He received his early education in the schools of Paris, and at an early age took a position in his father's store, where he remained for many years. When his father retired from active business life Mr. Hinton succeeded him. He took an active part in every movement that had for its object the moral and material welfare of Paris. For a long time he was general secretary of the Bourbon County Y. M. C. A., and also served terms as a member of the City Board of Education. He was Superintendent of the Paris Baptist Sunday School for a long time before his illness came on. Mr. Hinton went to Camp Taylor as a Y. M. C. A. secretary, and while there his eyes became infected in some way, from which the disease which finally caused his death resulted. In company with his brother, Prof. Robert Hinton, then a member of the faculty of the Georgetown College, he went to France as a Y. M. C. A. helper. Upon his return to America he grew worse, and gradually failed until the end came.

Mr. Hinton is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Anna Bruce McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McClure, of Vine Street, and two daughters, Misses Elizabeth Miller Hinton and Nell Winn Hinton; two sisters, Mrs. J. J. Taylor, of Virginia, wife of a former pastor of the Paris Baptist church, and Miss Bertha Hinton, of Paris, and one brother, Prof. Robert Hinton, of Georgetown.

The funeral will be held at the residence of Mr. James McClure at 4:30 this afternoon, conducted by Rev. R. C. Goldsmith, assisted by Rev. F. W. Eberhardt.

The following will be the pallbearers: E. T. Hinton, Albert Hinton, Wm. M. Goodloe, Catesby Spears, Collier Dawes, H. A. Power, D. S. Henry, Chas. White.

BASHFORD.

—Mrs. Sallie E. Bashford, aged eighty-three, died at her residence on Pleasant street at six o'clock Saturday evening, following an illness of several months' duration from uraemic poisoning and the infirmities of age. She was stricken Wednesday morning, and lapsed into unconsciousness, from which she never rallied.

Mrs. Bashford was the widow of James Bashford, for many years bookkeeper and confidential man for the G. G. White Distilling Co., in Paris, who preceded her to the grave several years ago. Mrs. Bashford was born in Woodford county, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pinkerton, prominent residents of that county. She had five brothers, two of whom were ministers in the Christian church, one of them being the founder of the Midway Orphan School. Two other brothers were prominent, one as a physician, and another as a lawyer, while another was a minister in the Episcopal church. She was the only daughter of the family. Mrs. Bashford leaves one son, Mr. Charles Bashford, of Davenport, Iowa.

The funeral was held yesterday morning at ten o'clock, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. W. E. Ellis. The pallbearers were Fred Link, Dr. J. T. Vansant, Jos. W. Davis, E. K. Thomas, William Myall and H. Clay Howard.

CHEEK.

—Mr. Nicholas Travers Cheek, aged seventy-seven, a former resident of Paris, died at his home in Lexington, Friday, after an illness extending over a period of four months.

Mr. Cheek was the son of Lewis Cheek, and was born near Springfield, Ky. His boyhood was spent as a resident of Paris. He moved to Lexington fifty years ago, and had since lived there continuously. He was prominently connected with the racing and breeding industries, and years ago his colors were conspicuous on the racing circuits. Mr. Cheek is survived by his widow, Mrs. Katherine Tillow Cheek, and two daughters, Mrs. S. E. Booth, of Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Kenner Walker, of Lexington.

Funeral services were held in the chapel at the undertaking establishment of W. R. Milward, in Lexington, Saturday afternoon at five o'clock. The body was brought to Paris, Sunday afternoon, and interred on the family lot in the Paris Cemetery, where short services were conducted by Bishop Louis W. Burton.

HOFFMAN.

—Albert Hoffman, aged seventy-two, a prominent insurance man of Mt. Sterling, well-known in this city, died at his home in Mt. Sterling, Saturday, after a long illness. Mr. Hoffman was until a few years ago actively engaged in the insurance business, and was widely known throughout the State in business circles. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Laura Gill Hoffman, one daughter, Mrs. Robert Coleman, and two sons, Harry G. Hoffman and J. Miller Hoffman, all of Mt. Sterling. The funeral was held at the family residence, at four o'clock, Sunday afternoon, with services conducted by Rev. Clyde Darsie, pastor of the Mt. Sterling Christian church. The interment followed on the family lot in Machpelah Cemetery.

ANTHON.

—Following a long illness due to the infirmities of age Mrs. Louise Anthon, aged eighty-nine, died Sunday night at 7:40 o'clock at the home of her son, Mr. Albert Anthon, in this city. Mrs. Anthon had been in feeble health for several years.

She is survived by four daughters and two sons, all of whom were at her bedside when she passed away. One son, Mr. Albert Anthon, is a resident of Paris.

The body will be taken to Vanceburg this morning for interment. The funeral services will be held in that city this afternoon.

WYATT.

John D. Wyatt, for several years editor of the Ewing Inquirer, and well-known in newspaper circles, died in Lexington recently. He had been in bad health for several months. He leaves a widow and five children. Mr. Wyatt for many years promoted excursions to Niagara Falls, Mammoth Cave and other points of interest. The body was taken to Flemingsburg for interment.

MATRIMONIAL.

MAHONEY—ROURKE.

—The marriage of Miss Genevieve Mahaney, of Paris, and Mr. Geo. P. Rourke, of Terre Haute, Indiana, was solemnized in the Holy Name Cathedral at Chicago, Rev. Father Bourget officiating, with the Nuptial Mass following.

The bride is a handsome young woman of many graces of character. She is the daughter of Mr. Dan M. Mahaney, and a sister of Mrs. John P. McCarthy, both of Paris. She is a graduate of Cardome Academy at Georgetown, and is at present holding a responsible position in the Railroad Administration service at Washington. Mr. Rourke is a prosperous young business man of Terre Haute. Mrs. Rourke will remain in her clerical position at Washington until January, 1, 1920, the expiration of her term, and will then go to housekeeping in Terre Haute.

RELIGIOUS.

—Rev. R. S. Sanders, formerly of Millersburg, will preach at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday.

With the closing of the union services being held in the Paris churches the different congregations have resumed holding services in their own houses of worship.

The Ebenezer Presbytery will convene at the Presbyterian church, in Elizaville, on September 16. The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. S. B. Lander, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Carlisle.

At a meeting of the Presbyterian Church Endeavor Society, called by the president, Mrs. W. B. Griffith, Miss Alice Heller was elected treasurer to succeed Mrs. Leslie O'Neill, resigned. Plans for creating renewed interest in the work of the society for the winter were discussed.

COUNTY SCHOOLS OPEN.

The county schools opened yesterday for the fall and winter term of 1919-1920, with a full corps of teachers and a good attendance of pupils at each school. The following teachers began their duties in the schools yesterday: Miss Frankie Crouch at the Burris school; Miss Elizabeth Clayton, of Lexington, at the Ford's Mill school; Miss Sallie Squires, of Paris, at the Letton school, and Miss Helen Purdy, at the Purdy school.

The County Teachers' Institute for the teachers of the white schools of the county began at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday and will continue through until Friday. The sessions are being presided over by Prof. Charles A. Keith, of the Eastern Kentucky Normal School at Richmond, as instructor. Miss Mattie Dalton, of Lexington, will address the teachers at the meeting on next Thursday in the interest of the literacy campaign in the State. Parents and school trustees are invited to hear this address. The session of the Institute are being held in the gymnasium.

BOURBON PEOPLE INTERESTED PARTIES IN "HOSS TRADE"

The sale of a "cream-colored walking mare, about 7 years old," is the cause of a suit for damages filed with the Fayette Circuit Clerk, in Lexington. John Marr and J. O. Ralls, of Bourbon county, ask in their petition against A. Hunley, of Boyle county, for $200 and interest from February, 1919.

According to the petition, the plaintiffs entered into a contract in the middle of January to purchase the mare in question from Hunley, paying $500 for the animal. On account of bad weather, they allege, the mare was not delivered at Lexington, the agreed point, for a week, during which time the animal's eyes became affected.

They protested to Hunley, who, after they had visited him at his home near Danville, agreed to take the mare back and pay them $300, and if a cure was effected, to either return the animal for the $300, or pay the plaintiffs $200 as they should elect. They chose the $200 later on, when Hunley reported the mare cured, but they aver that Hunley refused them the money.

The sum of $200 and interest from the date of the contract is asked of the court.

Robert C. Talbott, of Paris, is attorney for the plaintiffs.

ONE SHOW Starts 8 p.m.

THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE TWO NIGHTS

Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 10th and 11th

VICTORY BELLES "Over the Top" Musical Comedy Co. Present

A Up-to-the-Minute Musical Revue.

Extra Added Attraction—The Over-Seas Quartette

Pretty Girls, Funny Comedians, Special Scenery.

Pictures in Connection with the Above

WEDNESDAY

FANNY WARD "The Narrow Path"

The tale of a modern Belshazzar and his feastings; of a woman's trustfulness and her penalty; a drama of the straight and narrow way leading to happiness and of the broad way leading to destruction. An expose of the "double standard" of morality.

Admission—Adults 55c plus 5c war tax, 50c; Children and Gallery 22c plus 3c war tax, 25c.

THURSDAY

May Allison "In For Thirty Days"

May Allison, the Charming young Metro Star, is a Southern girl who has attained international popularity on the screen. Her latest triumph, "In For Thirty Days," is a comedy drama of brilliance and beauty which gives her full scope for her versatile talents.

ALAMO AFTERNOON, 2:00-5:30
GRAND EVENING, 7:00-10:30

ADMISSION

Adults 18c, war tax 2c—20c

Children and Gallery 9c plus 1c war tax—10c

ALAMO and GRAND Today, Tuesday

Bryant Washburn

"PUTTING IT OVER"

ALSO

ANTONIO MORENO AND CAROL HOLLOWAY in

'Perils of Thunder Mountain' and Harold Lloyd Comedy

'Just Neighbors'

Alamo Afternoon and Night Tomorrow, Wednesday

D. W. GRIFFITH Presents

'True Heart Susie'

Another great romance by the famed creator of "Hearts of the World" and "Birth of a Nation"

Also LARRY SEMON COMEDY

"His Simple Life" and Bray Pictograph

Alamo Afternoon and Night Thursday, Sept. 11th

Anita Stewart

The Painted World

Also Vod-a-Vil Movies

Ladies' Day

Two ladies will be admitted for one ticket plus 2c war tax on Thursdays.

BIRTHS.

—At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Redmon, near Paris, to the wife of Mr. Clyde Calvert, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, a son, their first-born.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robt. G. Jones, of North Middletown, are welcoming a daughter, born at the Good Samaritan Hospital, in Lexington. The young lady is a granddaughter of Mrs. Edward Andrews, of Lexington. Mrs. Jones having been before her marriage Miss Elizabeth Andrews, of Lexington. The babe has been named Elizabeth Andrews Jones.

INTERESTING OIL NOTES

Don F. Schlosser and others, of Columbus, Ohio, are preparing to clean out the five wells in Bath county recently purchased from a New York company. Mr. Schlosser is a son-in-law of Mrs. Mayne Parker, of Paris, his wife having formerly been Miss Lizzette Parker.

BOURBON HORSES FIGURE IN SPORTING NEWS.

Bonnie Tess, the fine six-year-old mare recently purchased by Mr. S. Kenny Nichols, of Paris, will be turned over to Jack Baker to be campaigned on the Kentucky circuit. Baker also has another of Mr. Nichols' string, the $10,000 Viva America, purchased some time ago.

It has developed that A. B. Hancock's famous sire, Celt, which died recently, was insured for $40,000. He was valued at $100,000, having sired some of the leading 2-year-olds of this season.

The famous three-year-old Eternal, winner of the Brooklyn Handicap, and the winter favorite for the Kentucky Derby of last spring, has been retired for the year, and is now at Xalapa farm, Bourbon county.

In the Lexington Cup Handicap, which will be run at the Lexington track next week, Mr. John T. Ireland has entered Dark Hill, brown gelding (3) by Fowling Piece—Pitch Dark. There were twenty-seven entries.

The following Bourbon county horses have been declared eligible to entry for competition in America's richest race, the $50,000 Latonia Championship, which will be run at the Latonia track, on Saturday, Oct. 11: Charlton Alexander's brown colt, Cockroach, by Magneto—Lady Levity; Wm. H. Whaley's chestnut colt, Dr. Daley, by Magneto—Evelyn Kinsley; Edward Simm's brown colt, Eternal, by Sweep—Hazel Burke; Edward Prichard's brown filly, Loving Lady, by Vulcan—Plantress, chestnut colt, Magnet Land, by Magneto—Breezyland; J. Hal Woodford's brown gelding, Sway, by Vulcan—Ruby Right, brown gelding, Hurry Up, by McGee—Babble.

School Shoes For Boys and Girls

An enormous purchase of Shoes for spot cash at prices almost unbelievable in the face of today's high market.

Wear-Resisting Stylish Shoes at Prices Far Less Than They Can Be Made

DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY. Have the children properly shod for school with a pair of these good looking and serviceable shoes. See them and compare prices.

Misses' Dark Tan English Boots at.....	$4.00 and $3.49	Boys' Dark Tan English Shoes at.....	$5.00 and $3.49
Misses' Gun Metal English Boots at.....	$3.49	Boys' Gun Metal English Shoes at.....	$4.00
Misses' and Children's Gun Metal Boots at.....	$2.49	Boys' Gun Metal Lace Shoes at.....	$1.99

Largest Selection of Beautiful, Stylish Fall Footwear Walk-Over and Other Famous Makes, at Lowest Prices!

DAN COHEN Paris' Greatest Shoe Store Where Beauty and Economy Reign